Royal Corinthian Yacht Club Ltd

Anti-Bribery Policy

Our Policy

1. In accordance with the Bribery Act 2010, the Royal Corinthian Yacht Club Ltd (the 'Club'), prohibits absolutely the offering, the giving, the solicitation and the acceptance of any bribe, whether cash or other inducement, regardless of size:

- to or from any person or company, wherever they are situated and whether they are a public official or body or private person or company;
- by any individual employee, committee member, volunteer, agent or other person or body acting on behalf of the Club;
- in order to gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage for the Club in a way which is illegal or unethical;
- or in order to gain any personal advantage, pecuniary or otherwise, for the individual or anyone connected with the individual.

Interpreting the Policy

2. It is not the intention of the policy to prevent the following activities:

- normal and appropriate hospitality in the course of business;
- the giving and receiving of ceremonial gifts.

However, such hospitality or gifts must be in moderation and not place any expectation on the recipient to reciprocate either in like or by performing, or failing to perform, any other task in return.

3. If there is any doubt as to whether an action might constitute bribery the matter should be referred to the Commodore or Treasurer for a decision.

Preventing and Reporting Bribery

4. All persons working for and on behalf of the Club have a responsibility to prevent, detect and report bribery. Should you hold any suspicion of bribery or attempted bribery committed by or against an employee, volunteer, agent or other party acting on behalf of the Club it must be reported immediately to the Commodore.

Dated: 12th April 2025